PROCLAIMS OCT. 12 LIBERTY DAY THROUGHOUT NATION

Washington, Sept. 20.—President Wilson today proclaimed Saturday, October 12, the 426th anniversary of the discovery of America, as Liberty Day, and called upon all citizens to celebrate it to stimulate a generous response to the fourth Liberty Loan.

The president's proclamation follows: Every day the great principles for which we are fighting take fresh hold upon our thought and purpose and make it clearer what the end must be and what we must do to achieve it. We now know more certainly than we ever knew before why free men brought the great nation and government we love into existence, because it grows clearer and clearer what supreme service to be America's privilege to render to the world. The anniversary of the discovery of America must therefore have for us in this fateful year a peculiar and thrilling significance. We should make it a day of ardent dedication of the ideas upon which our government is founded and by which our present heroic tasks are inspired.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, do appoint Saturday, the twelfth day of October, 1918, as Liberty Day. On that day I request the citizens of every community of the United States, city, town and countryside, to celebrate the discovery of our country in order to stimulate a generous response to the fourth Liberty Loan. Commemorative addresses, parades, harvest home festivals, or other demonstrations should be arranged for every neighborhood under the general direction of the secretary of the treasury and the immediate direction of the Liberty Loan Committee, in cooperation with the United States Bureau of Education and the public school authorities. Let the peoples' response to the fourth Liberty Loan express the measure of their devotion to the ideals which have guided the country from its discovery until now, and of their determined purpose to defend them and guarantee their triumph.

For the purpose of participating in Liberty Day celebrations all employees of the federal government throughout the country whose services can be spared, may be excused on Saturday, the twelfth day of October, for the entire day.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the District of Columbia, this 10th day of September, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighteen, and of the independence of the United States of America, the One Hundred and Forty-third.

WOODROW WILSON,
(By the president.)
ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State.

An Appeal for Clothing

Ten million impoverished people in occupied Belgium and France are facing shame, suffering, disease, and even death, for lack of clothing this winter. They must be helped. The Red Cross will start a campaign for clothing September 21 and it will run till September 30. Will not Calloway county respond as she always has? Every household has some spare clothing, worn or outgrown, of little use here but desperately needed by them.

In the face of brutal coercion and spiritual suffering they remain splendidly courageous. This courage challenges our charity. Let us match this courage of the Belgians by our generosity.

Those in the country can bring their clothing to the rest room at the court house. A committee will visit the homes in town.

TERMS OF THE LIBERTY LOAN ARE ARRANGED

Washington, Sept. 24.—The American people will be asked to subscribe in the three weeks beginning next Saturday the greatest loan in all history.

The treasury department announced tonight that the amount of this, the fourth Liberty Loan, will be $6,000,000,000.

The interest rate will be 4 1/2 per cent, the same as that of the third loan. Bonds will be dated October 24, five days after the close of the subscription period, and the first interest payment will be made next April 15 and will be for the 173 days

YEAR 1919 OUGHT TO SEE CLOSE OF MIGHTY STRUGGLE

Washington, Sept. 21.—Germany can be beaten with the great allied campaign of the summer of 1919—but before then there is no prospect of a proper ending of the war.

This was the hope and warning held out to the American people today by Food Administrator Herbert Hoover.

"I believe," he said, "we can bring this dreadful business to an end if every man, woman and child in the United States tests every acre of land every day and hour by the one touchstone—does this or that contribute to winning the war?"

To attain the victory sought, he said, the following must be accomplished:

Over 3,500,000 fighting Yanks must be placed in France, of which General Marchand declared today 1,700,000 are already there.

We must supply the greatest mechanical equipment ever given an army.

We must provide ships for our army, and to do this cut down imports of sugar, coffee and tropical fruits.

We must keep the allied civil population in ample food by shipping this year 1,050,000 more tons of meats, fats, dairy products, etc., than last year, 2,000,000 tons more bread stuffs, 330,000 tons more sugar and 550,000 tons more feed grains.

Every family in the United States must study its food budget to see if it cannot buy less, serve less, return nothing to the kitchen and practice the gospel of the clean plate.

Can Save 1,000,000 Lives.

If all this is done, and the war ends in 1919, says Hoover, "we will save a million American lives that will be expended if we have to continue until 1920."

Hoover's forecast was called forth at the launching of his food program for the American people during the coming year.

"While we expect the position on the west front may be improved from a military point of view between now and then (the next summer campaign) there can be no hope of consummation of the end that we must secure until another year has gone by," he said.

"To give this final blow in 1919 we have not only to find the men (3,500,000 fighters), shipping and equipment for this gigantic army, but the allied armies and the allied civil population must have ample food in the meantime if we are to maintain their strength."

Further Self-Denial Needed.

"The food program is up—small part of this issue. To provide ships for our army we have not only to build all we can, but we must have the help of allied shipping. In order that the allies may provide this they must take food ships from the more distant markets and place them upon the shorter run to the United States.

We must decrease our imports of sugar, coffee and tropical fruits. Under these conditions the demand on us is for larger supplies."

Hoover then declared the international conference on food supplies and shipping have estimated that America, during the year ending July 1, 1919, must ship a total of 2,900,000 tons of meats and fats, 10,100,000 tons of breadstuffs, 1,850,000 tons of sugar and 2,700,000 tons of feed grains—a grand total of 17,550,000 tons of food and feedstuffs.

Despite this program, Hoover said, further, that self-denial must and will be practiced by the allies next year "in the common cause."

"At the president's direction," he declared, "I have assured them that 'we eat at a common table,' and upon entering conferences in Europe we promised them that whatever their war food program calls for from us we should fulfill."

Although the production of cereals other than wheat is less than last year the United States can meet these demands and still maintain its own health and strength, Hoover said, knowing "the allied table will be less than ours, for the allied peoples are denying themselves more in order to transport our soldiers and we can do no less than all the ships they send us."

He urges close conservation of sugar, no "sugar bread" or coffee, a strict reduction of about a half a pound a week per person in the use of breadstuffs, meats and fats, although emphasizing there must be no curtailment in the use of milk for children.

He asks eating house proprietors and employees to undertake a stricter program than last year.

In short, he urges direct reduction of our consumption of all foodstuffs, laying special emphasis on staples.

"This is not a rationing—a thing we will never have if our people continue to support us as in the past," Hoover said.

"We are simply making an appeal to the intelligence in the homes and public eating places of America to work out for themselves the means and manner of saving."

Bernie Wilson came in the past week from Tulsa, Okla., to spend a few weeks visiting home folks.

What Volunteer Days Mean

Children will be urged to impart to parents and friends the news of the volunteer days.

There will be work in abundance for the army of solicitors when the actual drive gets under way, and a bulky showing in names and totals will help these workers in an inestimable degree in drawing the subscriptions later on which will swell the quotas of the various districts, and finally put the loan as a whole across with gusto and acclaim far exceeding that of the preceding issues.

Volunteering on the two days does not only mean specifically buying bonds, but as well includes giving every sort of unsolicited service to make the loan a success. Every man, woman and child in the country should become a working unit to boost subscriptions. Everyone is expected to tell to his friends all he knows good about Liberty Bonds as an investment and a patriotic service, and to leave no stone unturned to promote their sale.

High officials in the loan organization believe the two volunteer days will be an important factor in making the present issue so popular one. Every volunteer will feel a personal interest in the outcome, for the main reason that he has done something to attain that great object. Progress during the heated days of solicitation will be closely watched by those who were initial and volunteer workers, and until the full amount asked by Uncle Sam is safely in bank available for the needs of our boys in France and thereafter fighting lines.

Be a volunteer. Go to your bank Saturday and sign up. Go to your precinct or school district chairman on Saturday or Sunday and sign up. Back the boys killing boches.

The local board of this county is in receipt of official notice from Major Henry F. Rhodes, chief of the Selective Service Department, Frankfort, Ky., to the effect that Calloway county will be called upon between October 7 and 12 to send 69 white men to Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C. The number of men to be sent from this state is the largest single call issued by Major Rhodes. Calloway county will be able to furnish her quota from the old drafts including young men who registered in August. CANNOT PLEAD IN APPEAL CASES TO DISTRICT BOARD

An important ruling regarding the filing of appeals with the district draft board was received today by the Calloway county draft board. It provides that in the future all cases coming before the district organization either for classification or for motion to reopen cases will be heard only on affidavits filed by the local board and no witnesses may testify orally before the district board unless summoned specifically.

The order, signed by Chairman W. H. Yost, of Madisonville, head of the district board, follows:

On and after October 8th, 1918, all cases coming before the district exemption board, division No. 2, Western district, at Madisonville, Ky., either for classification or on motion to reopen will be heard and tried only on affidavits filed with the board.

No witnesses, unless summoned by the board, will be allowed to testify orally before it, nor will any registrant be allowed to appear before the board, either in person or by attorney after said date.

Ten Per Cent First Payment.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Ten per cent on fourth Liberty Loan subscriptions will be required on application instead of five per cent, the treasury announced today. Twenty per cent each will be due November 21, December 19, January 16, and 30 per cent January 30. This is the first time more than three installments have been arranged in addition to the payment on application for any Liberty Loan. The initial payment, although it can be paid at the time of pledging, need not be paid until October 9, the end of the loan campaign.

With Their Whole Souls

You are reading every day of our boys over there—of Pershing's divisions charging into the blasting fire of the boche trenches; of small detachments smashing their way from house to house through ruined villages; of single handed deeds of sacrifice and valor.

One thought, one impulse only fills their souls—to FIGHT AND KEEP ON FIGHTING until the war is won.

They know that all America is back of them; they know that they can count on us at home to send them all the guns and supplies they need to win.

There is only one way we can do it. All of us must work and save and buy Liberty Bonds, with our whole souls, the way our men are fighting over there!

No less will win. There is no other way to provide the money the Government must have. Don't wait to do your duty.

Be a Volunteer

September 28th and 29th Will be Volunteer Days

On these days everyone will be given an opportunity to step up and buy bonds without being solicited to do so. Places will be designated where volunteer subscriptions will be received. These places will be announced in the papers and by signs. Your card will be on file there. Cards of those who do not volunteer will be used for active solicitation, which will begin Monday, September 30th. No one will be overlooked.

Do not wait for some one to come after your subscription. Show that you, too, can volunteer for your Country's service, just as our boys "over there" did.

Figure out now the very maximum you can subscribe. Be ready when Volunteer Days come. This is no time for half-way measures. Half-way measures won't push our boys across the Rhine. It is up to us to buy bonds with every uninvested dollar we own, plus every dollar we can save by careful, frugal living for six months to come.

You don't have to pay all cash for your bonds. You can make your first payment from cash in the bank, and take care of the balance out of your daily, weekly or monthly savings.

The forced saving you do now will mean a nice nest egg later, for the bonds you buy now and pay for as you go along, will prove a splendid investment that will pay you a good interest every six months. After the war, the bonds will be worth more than you paid for them. Don't hesitate to do your duty and do it quickly. "Don't let the SON go down."

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great Country to do his utmost to help win the war, the following firms and individuals have patriotically contributed the money to pay for this and other advertisements of the Fourth Liberty Loan!

Washington, Sept. 22.—President Wilson today proclaimed Saturday, October 12, the 426th anniversary of the discovery of America as Liberty Day, and called upon all citizens to celebrate it to stimulate a generous response to the fourth Liberty Loan.

TERMS OF THE LIBERTY LOAN ARE ARRANGED

Washington, Sept. 24.—The American people will be asked to subscribe in the three weeks beginning next Saturday the greatest loan in all history.

The treasury department announced tonight that the amount of this, the fourth Liberty Loan, will be $6,000,000,000.

The interest rate will be 4 1/2 per cent, the same as that of the third loan. Bonds will be dated October 24, five days after the close of the subscription period, and the first interest payment will be made next April 15, and will be for the 173 days intervening. Thereafter semi-annual payments will be made, October 15 and April 15. On a $50 bond the first interest coupon will be worth $1.01, on $100 $2.02 and higher multiples accordingly.

Both coupon and registered bonds will be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. The $50,000 and $100,000 bonds will be registered only.

Since the latest maturity periods of the first, second and third loans were thirty, twenty-five and ten years respectively, it was announced the fourth would be for a period of twenty years.

Ten per cent of the subscription will be required as the initial payment on the fourth loan. Twenty per cent will be due as installment No. 4 December 19 and January 19, and 30 per cent January 30.

Terms of the loan were communicated today to the bureau of engraving and printing, and within a few hours 500,000 finished bonds were ready for shipment. An equal number, or even more, will be turned out daily hereafter. The bureau plans to print about 35,000,000 separate bonds for the fourth loan, with a larger proportion of "baby bonds" of the $50 denomination than in previous issues, in anticipation of a multitude of subscriptions from persons of small means.

BUILDINGS WILL REQUIRE O. K. FROM DEFENSE COUNCIL

All building enterprises in the future will have to pass the approval of the Council of National Defense. Orders governing the new ruling have been received by the Calloway county council from Edward W. Hines, the state chairman, at Louisville.

A person interested in a construction project, the new requirement states, must make a full statement of the facts, under oath, to the county Council of Defense.

The county Council of Defense will then investigate the necessity of the proposed construction and will transmit its recommendation with a summary of facts, to the state council for review.

The state council will then review the case and if it decides in favor of construction it will send its recommendation at once, with accompanying data, to the non-war construction section of the priorities division of the War Industry Board. The latter department has final right of decision and if it approves the project will send its permission.

The local council has forwarded an inquiry to the state council as to just what constitutes a project of "necessity." Meanwhile the Calloway council is holding up decisions on several building applications.

WILL CALL ALL MEN WHO MARRIED SINCE AUGUST 5

Washington, Sept. 21.—New editions of revised selective service regulations, issued today by Provost Marshal General Crowder, fix August 5 as the date from which draft boards shall disregard marriages of men who registered on September 12 as ground for exemption. The so-called slacker marriage provision says:

"The fact of dependency resulting from the marriage of a registrant of the class of September, 1918, who has married since the date of the introduction in congress of the act requiring his registration, to wit, August 5, 1918, will be disregarded as a ground for deferred classification."

The new edition, containing re-drafts of some provisions under the new man-power law, is issued as a guide to all draft boards, and incorporates a number of minor changes in procedure and methods, designed to facilitate their work, as well as provisions to make the wider exemption allowances workable.

Orders were issued today by the provost marshal general to draft boards to cease accepting cards of belated registrants on Monday, thus allowing the attaching of serial numbers to the registration to be completed. The date for the order of call drawing can thus be fixed by General Crowder next week.

Mother of French Orphans Writes.

Madam Ruchon, of Cheneville, Creuse, France, writes to the Arts and Crafts Club, of this city, her appreciation of the financial assistance for the support of her little girl. The letter which was received the past week is as follows:

Despite this program, Hoover said, further, that self-denial must and will be practiced by the allies next year "in the common cause."

"At the president's direction," he declared, "I have assured them that 'we eat at a common table,' and upon entering conferences in Europe we promised them that whatever their war food program calls for from us we should fulfill."

He urges close conservation of sugar, no "over brew" of coffee, a slight reduction of about a half a pound a week per person in the use of breadstuffs, meats and fats, although emphasizing there must be no curtailment in the use of milk for children.

He asks eating house proprietors and employees to undertake a stricter program than last year.

In short, he urges direct reduction of our consumption of all foodstuffs, laying special emphasis on staples.

Bernie Wilson came in the past week from Tulsa, Okla., to spend a few weeks visiting home folks.

What Volunteer Days Mean

One of the principal reasons why the Liberty Loan Organization has designated September 28 and 29 as "Volunteer Days" is to give a final and definite answer to the German claims that America is not solidly behind the war. It is expected that the subscriptions, great and small, to the country's call for funds on these days will furnish a reply which will be like a blow between the eyes to the kaiser and his advisors.

Thousands of prospective subscribers to the fourth Liberty Loan have signified they want the satisfaction of applying for their quota without solicitation. They can display their patriotism more effectively by coming forward unasked and signing up than waiting for the solicitor.

On Sunday, September 29, clergymen of all denominations will make strong appeals for their congregations in favor of the loan. Their theme will be the necessity of backing up our warriors in France by supplying the financial requirements of the government. Exhortations for the day will be to save soldiers rather than souls.

Business houses are urging their employees to swell the number of subscriptions on the two volunteer days. A mighty impetus is expected to be given to the entire drive by the example of the thousands who will surge forward to set example for the millions who will institute rank and file of buyers of the new loan.

It is expected that schools throughout this district and over the entire country will feature the two-day period of preliminary subscriptions. Teachers and principals will explain the meaning of the movement, and emphasizing the significance of going over the top early with subscriptions.

Children will be urged to impart to parents and friends the news of the volunteer days.

There will be work in abundance for the army of solicitors when the actual drive gets under way, and a bulky showing in names and totals will help these workers in an inestimable degree in drawing the subscriptions later on which will swell the quotas of the various districts, and finally put the loan as a whole across with gusto and acclaim far exceeding that of the preceding issues.

Volunteering on the two days does not only mean specifically buying bonds, but as well includes giving every sort of unsolicited service to make the loan a success. Every man, woman and child in the country should become a working unit to boost subscriptions. Everyone is expected to tell to his friends all he knows good about Liberty Bonds as an investment and a patriotic service, and to leave no stone unturned to promote their sale.

High officials in the loan organization believe the two volunteer days will be an important factor in making the present issue a popular one. Every volunteer will feel a personal interest in the outcome, for the main reason that he has done something to attain that great object. Progress during the bested days of solicitation will be closely watched by those who were initial and volunteer workers, and until the full amount asked by Uncle Sam is safely in "bank" available for the needs of our boys in France and the other fighting lines.

Be a volunteer. Go to your bank Saturday and sign up. Go to your precinct or school district chairman on Saturday or Sunday and sign up. Back the boys killing boches.

18-45 DRAFT DRAWING WILL TAKE PLACE NEXT WEEK

Washington, Sept. 24.—The national lottery, which, in a measure, will determine the order of the calling of the 13,000,000 men between 18 and 45 years of age, who registered September 12, probably will not be held before next week. Officials had hoped to fix a date late this week, but this plan is understood to have been abandoned in order that additional time may be given local boards to correct any errors made in assigning serial numbers to the registrants.

The Blood River Association.

The Blood River Association of Missionary Baptists will be held with the Baptist church at Birmingham Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 23, 24 and 25 instead of the dates announced last week. Benton Tribune-Democrat.

666 contains no alcohol, arsenic nor other poisonous drugs.

Liberty Loan Mass Meeting.

In keeping with our national fourth Liberty Loan program, all loyal patriotic and true blue American citizens of Murray and Calloway county are urged to meet in mass convention at the court house Saturday night, September 28, promptly at 8 o'clock. A heart to heart talk about our country's call, and then our duty in responding. There will be speaking and new patriotic songs. If we love home, country and freedom; if we care for our boys over there, being present and doing our best is the way to show it. Everybody come.—R. E. Broach, Chairman Publicity; T. H. Stokes, Chairman Sales Committee; Ben Grogan, Chairman Speaker's Bureau.

CANNOT PLEAD IN APPEAL CASES TO DISTRICT BOARD

An important ruling regarding the filing of appeals with the district draft board was received today by the Calloway county draft board. It provides that in the future all cases coming before the district organization either for classification or for motion to reopen cases will be heard only on affidavits filed by the local board and no witnesses may testify orally before the district board unless summoned specifically.

The order, signed by Chairman W. H. Yost, of Madisonville, head of the district board, follows:

On and after October 8th, 1918, all cases coming before the district exemption board, division No. 2, Western district, at Madisonville, Ky., either for classification or on motion to reopen will be heard and tried only on affidavits filed with the board. No witnesses, unless summoned by the board, will be allowed to testify orally before it, nor will any registrant be allowed to appear before the board either in person or by attorney after said date.

WILLIAM H. YOST.

Ten Per Cent First Payment.

Washington, Sept. 23.—Ten per cent on fourth Liberty Loan subscriptions will be required on application instead of five per cent, the treasury announced today. Twenty per cent each will be due November 21, December 19, January 16, and 30 per cent January 30. This is the first time more than three installments have been arranged in addition to the payment on application, for any Liberty Loan. The initial payment, although it can be paid at the time of pledging, need not be paid until October 9, the end of the loan campaign.

Woodruff Farm for Sale.

I want to sell my farm of nearly 300 acres. Will sell as a whole or cut up to suit. Come and see it. Will give in next week's Ledger a more complete description and particulars. L. Y. WOODRUFF, Murray, Route 4.

Light frosts last Friday and Saturday nights resulted in 75 damage to growing crops. However, it caused many farmers to commence heating tobacco some several days earlier than would have been done otherwise.

With Their Whole Souls

You are reading every day of our boys over there—of Pershing's divisions charging into the blasting fire of the boche trenches; of small detachments smashing their way from house to house through ruined villages; of single handed deeds of sacrifice and valor.

One thought, one impulse only fills their souls—to FIGHT AND KEEP ON FIGHTING until the war is won.

They know that all America is back of them; they know that they can count on us at home to send them all the guns and supplies they need to win.

There is only one way we can do it. All of us must work and save and buy Liberty Bonds, with our whole souls, the way our men are fighting over there!

No less will win. There is no other way to provide the money the Government must have. Don't wait to do your duty

Be a Volunteer

September 28th and 29th Will be Volunteer Days

On these days everyone will be given an opportunity to step up and buy bonds without being solicited to do so. Places will be designated where volunteer subscriptions will be received. These places will be announced in the papers and by signs. Your card will be on file there. Cards of those who do not volunteer will be used for active solicitation, which will begin Monday, September 30th. No one will be overlooked.

Do not wait for some one to come after your subscription. Show that you, too, can volunteer for your Country's service, just as our boys "over there" did.

Figure out now the very maximum you can subscribe. Be ready when Volunteer Days come. This is no time for half-way measures. Half-way measures won't push our boys across the Rhine. It is up to us to buy bonds with every uninvested dollar we own, plus every dollar we can save by careful, frugal living for six months to come.

You don't have to pay all cash for your bonds. You can make your first payment from cash in the bank, and take care of the balance out of your daily, weekly or monthly savings.

The forced saving you do now will mean a nice nest egg later, for the bonds you buy now and pay for as you go along, will prove a splendid investment that will pay you a good interest every six months. After the war, the bonds will be worth more than you paid for them. Don't hesitate to do your duty and do it quickly. "Don't let the SON go down."

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great Country to do his utmost to help win the war, the following firms and individuals have patriotically contributed the money to pay for this and other advertisements of the Fourth Liberty Loan:

The ledger cannot shed tears because of their taking away.

Enroute to the Trenches

To the dear friends back home, with whom I have associated, and known, and to Americans who are so patiently and willingly doing their stint so well to win the world for democracy, I take pleasure in extending my kindest regards.

We (the boys) thank all who have not had the privilege to fight for the very essential work you are doing to make complete this one vast army of Americans who are marching steadily onward to such a magnificent victory.

Let me say to the fathers and mothers who are sending their sons to fight, and to the wives and sweethearts who are waiting too, and to the brothers and sisters who are doing their part, that we feel very grateful to you for keeping the home fires burning till we come home. The Kaiser will soon be canned, and cheerfully help till the can is filled and the Kaiser killed.

A Salt Water Bath.

It was a pleasant day on which I took the swim, yet it was as unexpected as an April shower, but much cooler. It was quite refreshing, because we knew that if there was any Dutehmen near they didn't have the pleasure of swimming for their lives. I suppose you want to know why I took such a sudden plunge. Listen, I will tell you why.

About 11 o'clock on the 10th of July the San Diego was plowing peacefully the waves along where it happened. The crew was busy but happy, because that evening some would see "the great white way," others would even see their mothers at home. Then without warning just over the side from where I was stationed came an awfully jarring explosion followed by the haunting sound of the siren. Soon the crew was at their stations with life belts on. The gunners manned the guns with speed and accuracy. Boom, boom, boom, and then some, till many young guys were seen in the swimming pool.

When it was no longer safe to remain on board sailors were seen sailing over the side to say good bye to the dear old ship which was going down. I took the plunge with the rest. After coming to the surface I swam to a life raft which before long was overflowing with water-soaked sailors. The most interesting part of the swim was passing the action made by the downward dive of the siren. "Everybody pull!" was the word and we did pull with oars that had hinges. Finally all danger had passed but the open sea.

At first we thought the captain was lost, but soon we saw him standing up in a boat. From the throats of men everywhere came wild cheers for our worthy captain. Now Old Glory was seen waving in the breeze. When our eyes met the stars and stripes we filled the air with wild yells to the emblem which embraces all we love and are fighting for.

After waiting what seemed ages we saw two ships on the horizon. When we had taken good long baths we beheld the gladdest sights of our lives—it was the life lines thrown out to shivering, weary but thankful sailors. Finally all were picked up and permitted to bask in the sunshine which beamed down upon us so abundantly merciful.

I was lucky enough to have on all my clothes but my hat, shoes and trousers. Now I am warm and comfortable and feel none the worse because of the salt water bath.

Before I quit let me say to the boys and girls of Little Rock and Thompson districts with whom I have had the pleasure to work that you have my best wishes and kindest regards. May success and happiness attend you; may you visualize the ambitions of what you expect to be, to do and to have. Build foundations under your dreams and some day, if you try hard enough, and believe that you can, your dreams will come true.

To the patrons I give my best regards. If I am capable of advising, I would say be thoughtful in training your children and be kind and considerate to everyone.

W. D. COX, U. S. N.

After a long, weary year in training at Camp Shelby, Miss., the 38th division is now on the move. With this division is old Co. I of Murray, and many of the boys who were first called into service under the draft law. The boys are now at Camp Mills, N. Y., and soon relatives and friends will be notified of their safe arrival overseas. Good luck to all of them. Murray and Calloway county is eagerly awaiting the day when the news comes that old Co. I has tied into the Huns.

Cecil Trevathan, who was recently assigned to a clerical position in the army and sent to Charleston, S. C., for training, has been rejected. He was turned down on account of "bum pedals," as Joe Matt Wheeler calls 'em. Cecil is again with the N. C. & St. L. railway company at Paducah.

TELLS HOW TO AVOID SPANISH INFLUENZA

Washington, Sept. 21.—The surgeon general of the army issues the following rules to the public to safeguard against the spread of respiratory diseases:

How to strengthen our personal defense against Spanish influenza:

First.—Avoid needless crowding. Influenza is a crowd disease.

Second.—Smother your coughs and sneezes. Others do not want the germs which you would throw away.

Third.—Your nose, not your mouth, was made to breathe through. Get the habit.

Fourth.—Remember the three C's—clean mouth, clean skin and clean clothes.

Fifth.—Try to keep cool when you walk and warm when you ride and sleep.

Sixth.—Open the windows, always at home at night, at the office when practicable.

Seventh.—Food will win the war if you give it a chance. Help by choosing and chewing your food well.

Eighth.—Your fate may be in your own hands. Wash your hands before eating.

Ninth.—Don't let the waste products of digestion accumulate. Drink a glass or two of water on getting up.

Tenth.—Don't use a napkin, towel, spoon, fork, glass or cup which has been used by another person and not washed.

Eleventh.—Avoid tight clothes, tight shoes, tight gloves; seek to make nature your ally, not your prisoner.

Twelfth.—When the air is pure, breathe all of it you can; breathe deeply.

DEATH OF JOHN HOWARD REGALLS UNUSUAL FAMILY

Paris, Ky., Sept. 21.—John Howard, of Paris, who died Friday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Snapp, in Covington, was one of the few remaining descendants of the noted Howard family, of Bourbon county, who, in their day, were probably without a parallel for their size and weight. The family consisted of the father, mother, six sons and three daughters, whose heights and weights were as follows:

Father, six feet four inches, 200 pounds.

Thomas, six feet four inches, 230 pounds.

James, six feet six inches, 215 pounds.

John, six feet eleven and one half inches, 266 pounds.

Elijah, six feet three inches, 210 pounds.

Matthew, six feet eight inches, 220 pounds.

Eli, six feet one and one-half inch, 197 pounds.

Mother, six feet one and one-half inches, 285 pounds.

Susan, six feet two inches, 165 pounds.

Mary, six feet two inches, 150 pounds.

Sarah, six feet three inches, 160 pounds.

The family, eleven in number, in the aggregate measured seventy feet one and two tenths inches in height, weighed 2,296 pounds and the sum of their ages at the time of the first death in the family was 557 years.

The mother, Mrs. Kate Howard, nee Current, died at the age of 88 May 14, 1870, near Ruddle's Mills, this county, where she had lived for over sixty years. Seven children survive her. She had twelve brothers and sisters, each over six feet in height.

on earth peel right off like a banana skin—and that's magic "Gets-It." Tight shoes and dancing even when you have a corn need not disturb you if you apply a few drops of "Gets-It" on the corn or sun rise. You want a corn-peeler, not a corn-fooler. You don't have to fool with corns, you peel them right off with your fingers by using "Gets-It." Cutting makes corns grow and bleed. Why use irritating salves or make a bundle of your toe with tape or bandages? Why putter and still have the corn? Use "Gets-It"—your corn-pain is over, the corn is a "gone" sure as the sun rises. "Gets-It," the guaranteed, money-back corn-remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfg. by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE HAS A COLLOSSAL SUPPLY

Tours, Central France, Sept. 21.—The American army in France could be fed and clothed and all its creature comforts looked after for three months if not another pound of supplies were secured. This was the statement made here by officers of the army quartermaster's department, which directs this mammoth work of supplies.

It gives an idea of the vast stock of reserve resources stored in the miles of warehouses stretching from the coast inland to the fighting line, and it is a comforting assurance too that this huge reserve will be kept up through the coming winter period so that the American soldier's warmth, as well as his food and clothing, will be fully looked after.

It is a huge undertaking to feed a million men even for a single day—a million men, scattered to a thousand points, in trenches, on battlefields and camps, along 300 miles of front and for a depth of 500 miles. And when are added housing and clothing, and the period is extended through the winter months of cold and frost, with the prospect that another million or two men may be headed this way before long—with these elements one gets some idea of the magnitude of the supply problem for a million or more men.

U. S. Distribution Point.

Here at the center of the system, where the receipts are regulated and the distribution made, there was an opportunity of learning some of the details of how the system operates.

In the food branch alone, it takes over 4,000,000 pounds of food every day to feed the army. This prodigious daily consumption of flour embraces a million pounds of flour packed into a million pounds of bread every day, 875,000 pounds of fresh beef, 875,000 pounds of potatoes, 290,000 pounds of sugar and 125,000 pounds of tomatoes. The pepper and salt for a single day is 42,500 pounds. Army coffee is roasted at the rate of 75,000 pounds a day, and it takes 20,000 pounds of solidified alcohol to cook this coffee through the month.

The beef is the bulkiest product used each day, and occupies a daily space of 45,000 cubic feet, or about the dimensions of a business block, of solid meat. Flour comes next, requiring 25,000 cubic feet of daily space, and potatoes about the same. These are only a few of the main items. But the list runs through all the many requirements of the overseas army ration with vast quantities.

For any pain, burn, scald or bruise apply Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the household remedy. Two sizes, 30c and 60c at all drug stores.

RED CROSS RHEUMATIC REMEDY

STONE ROOT AND SUCHU COMPOUND Of unexcelled value for the treatment of kidney diseases. Pains in the back and burning sensations are symptoms of kidney troubles, which are quickly overcome by use of this remedy. This and more than one hundred other Red Cross Remedies sold and guaranteed only by H. D. THORNTON & COMPANY

In each case. Here are some of the other daily items:

Bacon, 225,000 pounds, beans 75,000 pounds, rice 50,000 pounds, onions 250,000 pounds, evaporated fruit 70,000 pounds, jam 70,000 pounds, milk 62,500 pounds, vinegar 40,000 pounds, lard 40,000 pounds, butter 31,000 pounds, syrup 40,000 pounds.

Must Make Deliveries.

These, being included in the overseas ration, everyone of the million men is entitled to his full allowance and it must go forward to him wherever he is. So that besides the vast daily stock there is the question of unfailing daily delivery first by railways and camion trains, and then to the individual soldier.

Often on the field or in the trenches he is supplied from marmites, or huge thermos bottles carrying hot food for eight men, and often too the delivery in the trenches is by the Yukon pack used in Alaska and by the Hudson bay voyagers and Indians.

Besides this four million pounds of food moving forward daily to the troops, each man carries with him two days' emergency ration, five pounds to the man, or an additional five million pounds of food for an army of a million men. Of the emergency ration, carried on the back there is outstanding every day two million pounds of corned beef and two million pounds of hardtack, 300,000 pounds of sugar, 62,500 pounds of coffee, 20,000 pounds of salt and 500,000 pounds of solidified alcohol for heating and cooking while on march.

Enroute to the Trenches

To the dear friends back home, with whom I have associated and known, and to Americans who are so patiently and willingly doing their stint so well to win the world for democracy, I take pleasure in extending my kindest regards.

We (the boys) thank all who have not had the privilege to fight for the very essential work you are doing to make complete this one vast army of Americans who are marching steadily onward to such a magnificent victory.

Let me say to the fathers and mothers who are sending their sons to fight, and to the wives and sweethearts who are waiting too, and to the brothers and sisters who are doing their part, that we feel very grateful to you for keeping the home fires burning till we come home. The Kaiser will soon be canned, so cheerfully help till the can is filled and the Kaiser killed.

A Salt Water Bath.

It was a pleasant day on which I took the swim, yet it was as unexpected as an April shower, but much cooler. It was quite refreshing, because we knew that if there was any Dutchmen near they didn't have the pleasure of swimming for their lives. I suppose you want to know why I took such a sudden plunge. Listen. I will tell you why.

About 11 o'clock on the 19th of July the San Diego was plowing peacefully the waves along where it happened. The crew was busy but happy, because that evening some would see "the great white way," others would even see their mothers at home. Then without warning just over the side from where I was stationed came an awfully jarring explosion followed by the haunting sound of the siren. Soon the crew was at their stations with life belts on. The gunners manned the guns with speed and accuracy. Boom, boom, boom, and then some, till many young guys were seen in the swimming pool.

When it was no longer safe to remain on board sailors were seen sailing over the side to say good bye to the dear old ship which was going down. I took the plunge with the rest. After coming to the surface I swam to a life raft which before long was overflowing with water-soaked sailors. The most interesting part of the swim was passing the stern of the ship by the downward dive of the stern, "Everybody pull" was the word and we did pull with oars that had hinges. Finally all danger had passed but the open sea.

At first we thought the captain was lost, but soon we saw him standing up in a boat. From the throats of men everywhere came wild cheers for our worthy captain. Now Old Glory was seen waving in the breeze. When our eyes met the stars and stripes we filled the air with wild yells to the emblem which embraces all we love and are fighting for.

After waiting what seemed ages we saw two ships on the horizon. When we had taken good long baths we beheld the gladiolus, sights of our lives—it was the life lines thrown out to shivering, weary but thankful sailors. Finally all were picked up and permitted to back in the sunshine which beamed down upon us so abundantly merciful.

I was lucky enough to have on all my clothes but my hat, shoes and trousers. Now I am warm and comfortable and feel none the worse because of the salt water bath.

Before I quit let me say to the boys and girls of Little Rock and Thompson districts with whom I have had the pleasure to work that you have my best wishes and kindest regards. May success and happiness attend you, may you visualize the ambitions of what you expect to be, to do and to have. Build foundations under your dreams and some day, if you try hard enough, and believe that you can, your dreams will come true.

To the patrons I give my best regards. If I am capable of advising, I would say be thoughtful in training your children and be kind and considerate to everyone.

W. D. COX, U. S. N.
